Connecting to the Source

Many Christians today suffer from the routines of life. Facing possible defeat due to busyness, fear, burnout, and feeling overwhelmed they often lack the skills and passion needed to triumph. Many have not been taught how to pray or how they can hear God. OnCall Prayer™ presents an effective method to enhance your time in prayer.

Benefits you will discover:

- ◆ How transforming your prayer life reveals your true identity in Christ
- ◆ How to structure your prayer life so your quiet time will be more effective
- ◆ How to hear answers to your prayers
- ◆ How to pray scriptures and become a prayer warrior whose prayers avail much
- ◆ How trusting God's sovereignty creates a steadfast hope

Prayer Shields

How Specifically Requested Prayer Deflects the Enemy

As a Christian leader on the front lines of ministry, you are more vulnerable to spiritual warfare. Those in ministry are more accountable, have more responsibility, are often subject to greater temptation, often suffer fatigue and/or burnout, and often criticized. Specifically requesting prayer from a Prayer Shield - a designated team of intercessors, creates strength and ensures victorious living. "Though one may be overpowered, two can defend themselves. A cord of three strands is not easily broken." Ecclesiastes 4:12

Benefits you will discover:

- ◆ Why sometimes you cannot effectively pray for yourself
- ◆ Where scripture directs us to seek the prayers of others
- ◆ How to construct a Prayer Shield
- ◆ The power of a prayer covering
- ◆ The assignment of a Prayer Shield
- ◆ What a life shielded by prayer looks like

About Sharon Hill

Sharon Hill, often referred to as the Prayer Mentor, has both a ministry and secular pulpit. She has spent more than 30 years training, mentoring, and ministering to individuals and venues of all sizes. Her heartfelt presentations, transparency, and real life experiences empower men and women of all generations to discover balance, personal maturity, inner strength, and an effective prayer life.

With a passion to invest in lives of others, she has a corporate background as president of an international marketing company where she successfully trained thousands of men and women. She also excelled in sales and management for a Fortune 500 Company. Sharon now uses her expertise in full time Christian ministry and consulting; and speaking at events, retreats, and conferences. She often consults with churches and Para church ministries to coach and help organize effective ministries. She has a heart to serve God outside the walls of her church, and teach others how to pray, form a Prayer Shield, and rely on God for every circumstance in their life.

In the year 2000 she organized and established a prayer ministry at Harvest Baptist Church, Ft. Worth, Texas to include more than 400 prayer warriors who prayed 24/7. She has served on Staff at Harvest Baptist Church since 2002.

In 2007, Sharon founded a ministry to speak about OnCall Prayer across the country. Through her keynote presentations, workshops, conferences, and retreats she teaches church leaders and members how to transform their lives through prayer.

Today, Sharon also serves in ministry as President of the Fellowship of Professional Women, Board of Directors for Tom Dooley/MasterMedia Ministries and in leadership with ProvenWay Ministries and others. She is married to Ronnie Hill, a deacon, has four grown children & several grandchildren.

Sharon believes in the power of prayer with a strong belief that every pastor, missionary, and ministry leader needs the covering of a designated Prayer Shield.

In our world today, authenticity and integrity are sadly lacking. That's what I appreciate most about Sharon Hill. She's the genuine article. Her passion and devotion to Christ and His people will inspire you. You will benefit greatly from this life-giving ministry.

I am so grateful for the Prayer Shield. I have needed this in place for years as I travel and speak. It is wonderful to know my three "gal" friends are positioned in prayer for me and those I serve through Jesus Christ.

*Jenny Broughton, Pastor's Wife
& Nationally Known Speaker*

Sharon is a wonderful public speaker. Her content is always fresh and unexpected in a delightful way. She can deliver a great talk and pierce your heart with her message. Her charm and grace are disarming. But what really makes Sharon such a superb communicator is the depth of her compassion. She speaks with conviction that come from a strong faith. And she's always on target.

*Tom Dooley, MasterMedia Ministries
& Host of The Journey & JesusFM.com*

To have written a best selling book such as The Greatest Miracle in the World is a great honor and thrill but it does not come close to the pride I have to present to you Sharon Hill, a living miracle whose magnificent presentations have changed so many lives.

*The late Og Mandino, Author & Speaker
Sharon's Mentor & Sponsor into Natl. Speakers Association*

After hearing Sharon speak, I was inspired to pray even more consistently and I formed a Prayer Shield of three Godly women who pray for me specifically. I feel the Holy Spirit hovering over me and I know God provides me protection and empowerment.
